ABOUT US

Corporate retreats shouldn't be boring. Too often, they feel routine and uninspiring—missing the mark on what teams truly need. That's why we created GRP Events—to redefine retreats with luxury, unique experiences, and a setting designed for real transformation.

At Pintail Point Estate, we provide more than just a venue; we create an environment where executives and teams can gather, reflect, and perform. Whether it's a multi-course gourmet dinner, strategy workshops, or hands-on team-building, every retreat is tailored to your goals. And if you have a new idea? We make it happen.

Everyone needs time to align, communicate, and gain clarity. Our retreats aren't just a break—they're a catalyst for breakthroughs. Your team will leave refreshed, reconnected, and ready to perform with new ideas and renewed energy.

Let's design an unforgettable retreat together.
